

Image Sources

Item	Description	Citation (APA Style)	Topics
	Migrant worker sitting outside his tent in a California migrant camp.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1939, February). Migrant worker in camp, California [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b38738	Dust Bowl Refugee Migrant Worker
	California home of a drought refugee from the dust bowl.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1936, August). California home of Oklahoma drought refugee [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b38485	Dust Bowl Refugee Migrant Worker Migrant Home
	California home of a drought refugee from the dust bowl.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1937, March). Home of a dust bowl refugee in California, Imperial County [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b31761	Dust Bowl Refugee Migrant Worker Migrant Home
	Forty families from the dust bowl have been camped here for months on the edge of the pea fields. There has been no work because the crop was frozen. Thousands of refugees	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1937, March). Squatter camp on county road near Calipatria [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b31762	Dust Bowl Refugee Migrant Worker Migrant Family

	congregated in Calipatria, California.
	Men waiting to collect a semi-monthly relief check. Thousands of refugees congregated in Calipatria, California.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1937, March). Waiting for the semi-monthly relief checks at Calipatria, California [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945 . Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b38665	Dust Bowl Refugee Relief Checks Migrant Worker Unemployment
	Dust bowl refugee family at work in the pea fields in California. Children also worked in the fields.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1937, Spring). Drought refugees from Oklahoma at work in the pea fields near Nipomo, California [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945 . Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b31828	Dust Bowl Refugee Migrant Worker Migrant Children Migrant Family
	This family without food and work are about to be returned to Oklahoma by the Relief Administration. They have lost a baby as a result of exposure during the winter. They had to sell their tent and car to buy food. Neideffer Camp, Holtville, Imperial Valley, California.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1937, Spring). Family without food and work about to be returned to Oklahoma [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945 . Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b31829	Dust Bowl Refugee, Relief Administration New Deal Unemployment Migrant Family Hunger
	Squatter camp of agricultural labor migrants one-eighth mile outside city limits of State Capitol of California. Above 125 units, mostly families, without sanitation; water donated by power company from single	Department of Agriculture. (Creator). (n.d.). Sacramento, California, Squatter camp of agricultural labor migrants [Photograph]. In Franklin D. Roosevelt Library Public Domain Photographs Compiled 1882-1962 . National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 521745]	Migrant Camp Hooverville Homeless

	faucet. Across the main road (upper right of panel) is a trailer camp. Beyond is a newly developing shack town community where lots are being sold and families are settling in makeshift home-built cabins and cottages of all descriptions. Beyond the shack town is Louis' Camp
	Sick migrant child in Washington state. Notice that the child is very thin.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1939, August). Sick migrant child, Washington, Yakima Valley, Toppenish [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b34329	Migrant Family Migrant Child Hunger
	In 1934 & 1936 drought and dust storms ravaged the great American plains and added to the New Deal's relief burden.	Roosevelt, Franklin D (Franklin Delano), 1882-1945. (Creator). (n.d.). Dust Storms; "In 1934 & 1936 drought and dust storms ravaged the great American plains[Photograph]. In Franklin D. Roosevelt Library Public Domain Photographs Compiled 1882-1962. National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 195563]	Dust Storms Dust Bowl New Deal
	Dust storm in Oklahoma.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, April). Dust storm, Oklahoma [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b38298	Dust Storm Dust Bowl

	Approaching dust storm in Texas.	Lee, R. (Photographer). (1939, May). Dust storm approaching, Lubbock, Texas [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b21967	Dust Storm Dust Bowl
	An abandoned farm in the dust bowl.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, April). Abandoned farm in the dust bowl area, Oklahoma [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b38292	Dust Bowl Dust Storm Abandoned Farms
	Map of the dust bowl.	(n.d.) The dust bowl [Image]. Retrieved from University of Illinois, Department of English, Modern American Poetry: http://www.english.illinois.edu/maps/depression/dustbowl.htm	Dust Bowl Dust Storm
	FSA emblem.	Department of Agriculture (Creator) (n.d.). Farm Security Administration emblem [Image]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8e04683	FSA New Deal
	This photo depicts the sanitary washing area (laundry and showers) in a FSA (Farm Security Administration) federal camp.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1939, October). Portable laundry unit, shower unit beyond [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b35572	FSA New Deal Migrant Worker Migrant Camp Government Camp

	Migrant girl uses wash facilities provided for cleanliness in the Merrill FSA (Farm Securities Administration) camp.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1939, October). Young migrant girl makes use of facilities provided for cleanliness [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b35581	FSA New Deal Migrant Worker, Migrant Camp Government Camp
	Doctor and nurse examine children in a trailer clinic at a FSA (Farm Securities Administration) mobile camp in Klamath County, Oregon.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1939, October). Doctor examining children in trailer clinic [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/cph.3d02241	FSA New Deal Migrant Worker Migrant Camp Government Camp
	View of Kern County FSA (Farm Securities Administration) migrant camp showing garden plots used to grow food for camp residents.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1936, November). View of Kern County migrant camp showing community garden plots [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b29865	FSA New Deal Migrant Camp
	Kern County FSA (Farm Securities Administration) migrant camp built to provide safe and sanitary housing for migrant workers.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1936, November). Entrance and view of Kern migrant camp, California [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b29867	FSA New Deal Migrant Camp Government Camp
	Playground for children in the Kern County FSA (Farm Securities Administration) migrant camp.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1936, November). Recreational facilities for the children, Kern migrant camp, California [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8a31312	FSA New Deal Migrant Camp Migrant Family Government Camp

	Hooverville of Bakersfield, California. A rapidly growing community of people living rent-free on the edge of the town dump in whatever kind of shelter available. Approximately one thousand people now living here and raising children.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1936, April). Hooverville of Bakersfield, California [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b27057	Hooverville, Unemployment, Homeless
	Squatters living in shacks in Portland, Oregon.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, July). Squatters' shacks along the Willamette River, Portland, Oregon [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b28022	Hooverville Unemployment Homeless
	Trespassing notice posted on a shack in a Portland, Oregon Hooverville.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, July). Notice on shacks at Hooverville, Portland, Oregon [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b28024	Hooverville Unemployment Homeless
	Mayor's office and commissary (store) in a Portland, Oregon Hooverville.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, July). Mayor's office and commissary, Hooverville, Portland, Oregon [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b27936	Hooverville Unemployment Homeless

	A garden patch in a Portland, Oregon Hooverville.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, July). A typical garden patch in Hooverville, Portland, Oregon [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b27930	Hooverville Unemployment Homeless
	Portland, Oregon Hooverville resident. Background contains winter wood supply.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, July). Hooverville resident [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b27932	Hooverville Unemployment Homeless
	This floating privy (bathroom) demonstrates the unsanitary conditions in a Portland, Oregon Hooverville.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, July). Privy floating in Willamette River [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b27931	Hooverville Unemployment Homeless
	Circleville, Ohio was a small city with a few industries. During the depression many farms of the district were foreclosed. People who lost homes tried to move to the town. The only place many people could find to live was the Hooverville.	Shahn, B. (Photographer). (1938, Summer). Dwellers in Circleville's "Hooverville," central Ohio [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8a18471	Hooverville Unemployment Homeless

	Child dweller in the Circleville, Ohio Hooverville. Exposes the filthy conditions of a Hooverville.	Shahn, B. (Photographer). (1938, Summer). Dwellers in Circleville's "Hooverville," central Ohio [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8a18464	Hooverville Unemployment Homeless
	Sunset Trailer Camp, San Diego, California. The majority of the workers who have come into San Diego are apparently living in trailers. The county passed stringent sanitary laws when migratory agriculture workers came into the section some years ago and these laws prevent the Hooverville type of settlement. Rent for trailer space here is ten dollars per month with electricity and sanitary facilities, including showers and toilets, furnished.	Russell, L. (Photographer). (1940, December). Sunset trailer camp, San Diego, California [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8c00272	Hooverville Unemployment
	Bonus Marchers and police battle in Washington, DC.	Associated Press. (Photographer). (1932, July). Bonus Marchers and police battle in Washington, D.C. [Photograph]. In Picturing the Century: One Hundred Years of Photography from the National Archives. National Archives and Records Administration, Records of the Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://www.archives.gov/exhibits/picturing_the_century/greatdep/gr eatdep_img40.html	Bonus Army Bonus March

	Bonus Marchers camp in the Washington D.C. Mall.	Horydczak, T. (Photographer). (1932, July). Veterans bonus march [Photograph]. In American Treasures of the Library of Congress: The Bonus Army March (Memory). Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://www.loc.gov/exhibits/treasures/trm203.html	Bonus Army Bonus March
	Flyer asking Veterans to attend a second Bonus March on December 5, 1932 to demand cash payment of their WWI bonus. The flyer details why the organizers believe this march will be successful (the first march had failed).	Veterans Rank and File Committee. (Creator). (1932). Veterans march to Washington to arrive at opening of Congress, December 5th, 1932 to demand cash payment of bonus [Image]. In An American Time Capsule: Three Centuries of Broadsides and Other Printed Ephemera. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.rbc/rbpe.1330190a	Bonus March Bonus Army
	Shacks, put up by the Bonus Army on the Anacostia flats, Washington, DC, burning after the battle with the military.	Department of Defense. (Creator). (1932). Shacks, put up by the Bonus Army on the Anacostia flats, Washington, DC, [Photograph]. In Signal Corps Photographs of American Military Activity, compiled 1754-1954. National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 531102]	Bonus March Bonus Army
	Soldiers clash with bonus marchers as they try to evict them from their camps along Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, D.C.	Associated Press. (Photographer). (1932). World War I veterans stand amid rubble and tear gas as soldiers evict them from encampments [Photograph]. In New York World-Telegram and the Sun Newspaper Photograph Collection. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://www.americaslibrary.gov/aa/patton/aa_patton_bonus_3_e.html	Bonus March Bonus Army

	Veterans from all over the country traveled to Washington DC for the Bonus March. Pictured here are veterans travelling from Pennsylvania.	Horydczak, T. (Photographer). (1932). Bonus veterans from Jeannette, Pennsylvania [Photograph]. In Theodor Horydczak Collection. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://www.americaslibrary.gov/aa/patton/aa_patton_bonus_1_e.html	Bonus March Bonus Army
	Chart of Unemployment in the Great Depression.	Sciandra, K. (Creator). (2011, April 9). Great depression unemployment [Chart].	Unemployment
	Man living in a hobo "jungle" along the riverfront in St. Louis, Missouri.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, March). A hobo "jungle" along riverfront, Saint Louis, Missouri [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b27090	Unemployment Homeless Hunger
	Men's dormitory at the homeless men's bureau in Sioux City, Iowa. Dormitory was for single men who were unemployed. Most of the men were willing to work. Average age - 52.	Lee, R. (Photographer). (1936, December). Men's dormitory at night at the homeless men's bureau, Sioux City, Iowa (for unattached men) [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b30049	Unemployment Homeless

	Notice on a city mission in Dubuque, Iowa.	Vachon, J. (Photographer). (1940, April). Sign in window of city mission, Dubuque, Iowa (for unattached men) [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8a05527	Unemployment Homeless Hunger
	Evening meal being served at a mission.	Vachon, J. (Photographer). (1940, April). Evening meal served at Dubuque city mission, Dubuque, Iowa [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8c16997	Unemployment Homeless Hunger
	Transient men waiting to have their clothes fumigated and to take showers at the Dubuque, Iowa city mission.	Vachon, J. (Photographer). (1940, April). Transient men waiting to have their clothes fumigated and take showers, city mission, Dubuque, Iowa [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8c17089	Unemployment Homeless
	Some of the residents of the transient camp operated by the state of Michigan at Hagerman Lake. About a hundred men are quartered here, mostly old lumberjacks, miners, and other	Russell, L. (Photographer). (1937, April). Some of the residents of the transient camp operated by the state of Michigan at Hagerman Lake [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b30377	Unemployment Homeless

	unemployables. Some of these men stay for just a short time. When men come to camp they are usually undernourished.
	Man in a hobo jungle killing a turtle to make soup.	Vachon, J. (Photographer). (1939, September). Man in hobo jungle killing turtle to make soup, Minneapolis, Minnesota [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8a04756	Unemployment Homeless Hunger
	Children waiting in line for soup given out each night by the Dubuque, Iowa city mission, a community chest financed organization.	Vachon, J. (Photographer). (1940, April). Children waiting in line for soup given out each night by the city mission, a community chest-financed organization, Dubuque, Iowa [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8c17104	Unemployment Hunger
	Former tenant farmer unable to find work receives unemployment relief to feed his family.	Lee, R. (Photographer). (1936, December). Homer Sharer and family [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b30019	Unemployment Tenant Farmer

	Due to unemployment, women offer to take in washing and ironing in an effort to earn some money. The women are pictured in their home.	Lee, R. (Photographer). (1939, August). Home and family of oil field roustabout [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b22677	Unemployment
	Children playing in an abandoned shack.	Department of the Interior. (Creator). (1934, July). Children of miners playing in abandoned shack. [Photograph]. In Photographs of the Medical Survey of the Bituminous Coal Industry, compiled 1946-1947. National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 196582]	Unemployment Homeless
	The "forgotten women." Single, unemployed women in a job demand parade.	World Telegram Staff. (Photographer). (1933, December 7). "Forgotten women," unemployed and single, in job demand parade [Photograph]. In Miscellaneous Items in High Demand. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/cph.3c13263	Unemployment
	Men applying for work at the office of the Texas State Employment Service in Corpus Christi, Texas.	Russell, L. (Photographer). (1940, December). Men applying for work at the office of the Texas State Employment Service, Corpus Christi, Texas [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8c35218	Unemployment
	Unemployment benefits aid begins. Line of men inside a division office of the State Employment Service office at San Francisco, California, waiting to register for benefits on one of the first days the office was open.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1938, January). Unemployment benefits aid begins [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b15409	Unemployment

	They will receive from six to fifteen dollars per week for up to sixteen weeks. Coincidental with the announcement that the federal unemployment census showed close to ten million persons out of work, twenty-two states begin paying unemployment compensation.
	Applicants waiting for jobs in front of FERA offices in New Orleans.	Shahn, B. (Photographer). (1935, October). Applicants waiting for jobs in front of FERA (Federal Emergency Relief Administration) offices, New Orleans, Louisiana [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8a16788	FERA New Deal Unemployment
	Laurel, Mississippi factory, financed by FERA, produces starch from sweet potatoes.	Taylor. (Photographer). (1936, May). Factory financed by FERA (Federal Emergency Relief Administration) for producing starch from sweet potatoes, Laurel, Mississippi [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b30948	FERA New Deal Unemployment
	FERA placed many women in clerical jobs at civil works projects.	Roosevelt, Franklin D (Franklin Delano), 1882-1945. (Creator). (1934, July). Federal Emergency Relief Administration: FERA camps for unemployed women in Arcola, Pennsylvania; "Second Camp" [Photograph]. In Franklin D. Roosevelt Library Public Domain Photographs Compiled 1882-1962. National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 196582]	FERA New Deal Unemployment

	WPA provided women with training to be household workers.	Work Projects Administration. (Creator). (1940, May 20). Photograph:WP 10688, OP#665_08_3_169; Household Workers Training Project, San Jose, California (Cooking), ca. 05/20/1940 [Photograph]. In Records of the Work Projects Administration, 1922 - 1944. National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 296100]	WPA New Deal Unemployment
	Poster announcing free training for women to become household workers.	WPA Art Program. (Artist). (1940, July 20). There are jobs for you, if trained [Poster]. In By the People, For the People: Poster from the WPA, 1936-1943. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/cph.3f05404	WPA New Deal Unemployment
	Many people believed that the Works Progress Administration would help people find jobs.	Federal Art Project. (n.d.). Forging ahead Works Progress Administration [Monogram]. In Works Progress Administration Poster Collection. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/cph.3b49016	WPA New Deal Unemployment
	A school in Heard County Georgia that was built by WPA workers.	Delano, J. (Photographer). (1941, April). The new WPA (Work Projects Administration) school in Franklin, Heard County, Georgia [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8c05311	WPA New Deal Unemployment

	Manual laborer working for the WPA.	Lee, R. (Photographer). (1941, April). WPA (Work Projects Administration) worker, Chicago, Illinois [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8c00745	WPA New Deal Unemployment
	New courthouse built by the WPA.	Lange, D. (Photographer). (1939, October). The new WPA (Work Projects Administration) courthouse alongside the old county courthouse, Bonners Ferry, Idaho [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b35555	WPA New Deal, Unemployment
	Advertisement for health education classes provided by the WPA.	Works Progress Administration – District 8. (Creator). (n.d.). Education Project [Pamphlet]. In Georgia Historical Society: Twentieth Century. Works Progress Administration District 8 Papers, Scrapbook, Savannah, Folder 4. Retrieved from http://www.georgiahistory.com/containers/155#DepressionNewDeal	WPA New Deal

	A poster created to recruit boys to join the CCC.	Bender, A.M. (Artist). (1941). A young man's opportunity for work, play, study, & health [Poster]. In By the People, For the People: Poster from the WPA, 1936-1943. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/ppmsca.12896	CCC New Deal
	CCC boys working in Prince George County, Maryland.	Mydans, C. (Photographer). (1935, November). CCC (Civilian Conservation Corps) boys working, Prince George's County, Maryland [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8a00074	CCC New Deal
	CCC workers leveled the ground and planted trees at an abandoned strip coal mine.	Rothstein, A. (Photographer). (1936, May). Abandoned strip coal mine leveled and planted with trees by CCC (Civilian Conservation Corps) workers, Cherokee County, Kansas [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b38307	CCC New Deal
	Old bridge repaired by CCC workers.	Delano, J. (Photographer). (1940, November). The "old comstock bridge," three miles West of Colchester, Connecticut on Route 16 [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8c03890	CCC New Deal

	CCC workers created a lake in Savoy Mountain State Park, Massachusetts.	Collier, J. (Photographer). (1941, October). Lake in Savoy Mountain State Park created by CCC (Civilian Conservation Corps) [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8c25827	CCC New Deal
	After a tornado devastated Gainesville, GA in 1936, assistance was provided by many organizations including the CCC. Here workers are cleaning up a street.	(1936, April 6). Local and volunteer workers cleaning up streets on day of storm [Photograph]. Hall County, Georgia historical photograph collection, Hall County Library System. Retrieved from http://dlg.galileo.usg.edu/hall/hchp/do:0099	CCC New Deal
	CCC worker planting a tree as part of a reforestation project.	Roosevelt, Franklin D (Franklin Delano), 1882-1945. (Creator). (1933). Civilian Conservation Corps enrollee engaged in tree planting [Photograph]. In Franklin D. Roosevelt Library Public Domain Photographs Compiled 1882-1962. National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 195827]	CCC New Deal
	Undefeated baseball team of CCC 544, Yellowstone Park, Fort Missoula.	Leo's Studio, Spokane, WA (Photographer). (n.d.). Baseball Team [Photograph]. In National Archives and Records Administration. Retrieved from New Deal Network: http://newdeal.feri.org/library/photo_details.cfm?PhotoID=6568&ProjCatID=10339&CatID=17&subCatID=1070	CCC New Deal
	CCC boys learning surveying skills.	Department of the Interior. (Creator). (n.d.). CCC Camp BR-78 Orland Project, California: "Mr. Earl Asdell, General Foreman, Bureau of Reclamation, instructing surveying class, Camp Br-78." [Photograph]. In Civilian Conservation Corps Photographs and Related Correspondence, compiled 1939-1941. National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 293580]	CCC New Deal

	CCC living quarters in Camp Euclid, Ohio.	(1936, September). Inside the barracks [Photograph]. In National Archives and Records Administration. Retrieved from New Deal Network: http://newdeal.feri.org/library/photo_details.cfm?PhotoID=4988&ProjCatID=10340&CatID=17&subCatID=1071	CCC New Deal
	Assistant Procurement Officer administering the oath to those who have successfully passed their examination for the CCC.	(1940). Recruits take the oath [Photograph]. In National Archives and Records Administration. Retrieved from New Deal Network: http://newdeal.feri.org/library/photo_details.cfm?PhotoID=4879&ProjCatID=10327&CatID=17&subCatID=1068	CCC New Deal
	CCC boys studying in the camp library.	(1939, Jun 25). Studying in Camp Walhalla library [Photograph]. In National Archives and Records Administration. Retrieved from New Deal Network: http://newdeal.feri.org/library/photo_details.cfm?PhotoID=4934&ProjCatID=10335&CatID=17&subCatID=1070	CCC New Deal

	Typical advertisement produced by the Social Security Board to inform Americans about their right to collect Social Security benefits.	Social Security Board (Creator). (1935). A monthly check to you [Poster]. In Posters: Artist Posters. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/ppmsca.07216 and http://www.ssa.gov/history/check.html	Social Security New Deal
	Lineman, working for the REA, on a utility pole	(n.d.). Lineman on a utility pole [Photograph]. In Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library. Retrieved from New Deal Network: http://newdeal.feri.org/library/photo_details.cfm?PhotoID=5471&ProjCatID=10081&CatID=5&subCatID=1015	REA New Deal
	Child enjoying the benefits of electricity - lamp and radio.	(n.d.). Child by radio and lamp [Photograph]. In Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library. Retrieved from New Deal Network: http://newdeal.feri.org/library/photo_details.cfm?PhotoID=5687&ProjCatID=10083&CatID=5&subCatID=1017	REA New Deal

	FDR – 1933- First Inaugural	Howcroft, C. (Photographer). (1933, March 4). First Inaugural [Photograph]. In Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library. Retrieved from New Deal Network: http://newdeal.feri.org/library/photo_details.cfm?PhotoID=6189&ProjCatID=10025&CatID=2&subCatID=1003	New Deal
	People milling about outside of a bank during one of the depression's bank runs.	Roosevelt, Franklin D (Franklin Delano), 1882-1945 (Creator). (1933). Depression: "Runs on Banks" [Photograph]. In Franklin D. Roosevelt Library Public Domain Photographs Compiled 1882-1962. National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 195559]	Bank Failures
	Depositors trying to get their money from a bank that has failed.	Collier, J. (Photographer). (1941, October). Depositors at failed bank [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/cph.3b25777	Bank Failures
	Family trying to sell off furniture before being evicted from their farm due to the bank foreclosing on the loan.	Roosevelt, Franklin D (Franklin Delano), 1882-1945. (Creator). (1933). Farm foreclosure sale [Photograph]. In Franklin D. Roosevelt Library Public Domain Photographs Compiled 1882-1962. National Archives and Records Administration Still Picture Records Section, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://arcweb.archives.gov [ARC Identifier 195528]	Foreclosures Homeless Migration
	Foreclosed farm being auctioned. Military police were on hand to stop farmers from preventing the auction.	(n.d.). Inflation [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b08252	Foreclosures Homeless Migration

	Two hangman's nooses hang as a grim warning to prospective bidders on this foreclosed farm. In this way many farms sold for only a few cents until the Farm Debt Adjustment Committee came into being.	(1936, May). Two hangman's nooses hang as a grim warning to prospective bidders on this foreclosed farm [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8e03402	Foreclosures Homeless Migration
	Farmer after farmer in the drought area is forced to see his few possessions to go on the block of the auctioneer as drought drives him from his homestead and makes him a property less migrant.	Rothstein, A. (1936, May). Auction [Photograph]. In America from the Great Depression to World War II: Photographs from the FSA-OWI, 1935-1945. Library of Congress Prints and Photographs Division, Washington, DC. Retrieved from http://hdl.loc.gov/loc.pnp/fsa.8b27790	Foreclosures Homeless Migration

Audio Sources

Item	Description	Citation (APA Style)	Topic
"Interview About Life in the Government Camp" 4:48	Interview with a husband and wife about their generally positive experience in a government camp.	Becker, J.W. (Interviewee). (1940, August 16). Interview about life in the government camp [mp3]. On Voices from the Dust Bowl: The Charles L. Todd and Robert Sonkin Migrant Worker Collection, 1940-1941. Library of Congress American Folklife Center. Retrieved from http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/afctshhtml/tshome.html (Digital ID: AFCTS 4143a1).	FSA New Deal Migrant Camp Government Camp
"The Job's Just Around the Corner (Poem)"	Poem written by a migrant who travelled from Arkansas to	Chapin, I (Author & Performer). (1940, August 1). The job's just around the corner [mp3]. On Voices from the Dust Bowl: The Charles L. Todd and Robert Sonkin Migrant Worker Collection, 1940-1941. Library of Congress American Folklife Center. Retrieved from	Migrant Worker Unemployment

	California, looking for work all along the way.	http http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/afctshtml/tshome.html (Digital ID: AFCTS 4099b1).
"Interview with Roy Turner" 2:28	Family man discusses living in a shack community with 30 other families who were unemployed and starving. Discusses how they used scrap material to make shacks and how they foraged for food.	Turner, R. (Interviewee). (1940, August 1). Interview with Roy Turner [mp3]. On Voices from the Dust Bowl: The Charles L. Todd and Robert Sonkin Migrant Worker Collection, 1940-1941 . Library of Congress American Folklife Center. Retrieved from http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/afctshtml/tshome.html (Digital ID: AFCTS 5137b3).	FSA New Deal Homeless Unemployment Hunger Migrant Worker Government Camp
"Interview About Dust Storms in Oklahoma" 4:32	Dust bowl refugee describes a dust storm and reads a poem she wrote about moving to California.	Robertson, F. (Interviewee). (1940, August 5). Interview about dust storms in Oklahoma [mp3]. On Voices from the Dust Bowl: The Charles L. Todd and Robert Sonkin Migrant Worker Collection, 1940-1941 . Library of Congress American Folklife Center. Retrieved from http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/afctshtml/tshome.html (Digital ID: AFCTS 4120a1).	Dust Bowl Refugee Dust Storm Dust Bowl

Music Sources

Item	Description	Citation (APA Style)
"Everlasting Sadness" 1:58 0:60 0:30	A track of pure sadness, the string and piano harmony give a feeling of deep loss and utter depression.	Chan, S. [Composer]. (n.d.). Everlasting sadness. On Orchestral dimensions volume 6 [mp3]. Freeplaymusic, BMI. Retrieved from http://www.freeplaymusic.com/search/category_search.php?t=f&i=87
"Tearful Goodbyes" 0:41 0:30	Saddened strings and clarinet weave a dramatically sorrowful melody-dripping with regret. Harp adds tender accents as the emotion swells.	Bolvin, E. [Composer]. (n.d.). Tearful goodbyes. On Orchestral soundscapes volume 6 [mp3]. Freeplaynij, ASCAP. Retrieved from http://www.freeplaymusic.com/search/category_search.php?t=f&i=87

"Moving Images" 0:14	A quick orchestral piece with a string section setting a mood of deep loss or intense longing.	Kakiani, M. [Composer]. (n.d.). Moving images. On Moving images volume 1 [mp3]. Freeplaymusic, BMI. Retrieved from http://www.freeplaymusic.com/search/category_search.php?t=f&i=87
"Desert Defeat" 1:48 0:60 0:30	A spooky, dusky steel guitar theme, with chilling rattle and ghostly harmonica. You can practically hear the sage shriveling in the ruthlessly dry heat.	Goldstein, H. [Composer]. (n.d.). Desert defeat. On American roots volume 1. Music of Freeplay, SESAC. Retrieved from http://www.freeplaymusic.com/search/advanced_search_ext.php?sindex=11&kw=&instrument=&feeling=-1&style=4&volume=-1&tempo=-1
"Me and My Shadow" 0:52 0:30	A depressing and dark cinematic piece with rich acoustic guitars and a somber string section creating a moody and reflective piece.	McLaughlin, M. [Composer]. (n.d.). Me and my shadow. On Soundtrack moods volume 4. Freeplaymusic, BMI. Retrieved from http://www.freeplaymusic.com/search/category_search.php?sindex=11&i=87&t=f
"Brother, Can You Spare a Dime?" 3:10	Depression era song about the despair of unemployed men.	Piloy, C. [Composer]. Brother, can you spare a dime [MP3]. Retrieved from Internet Archive: http://www.archive.org/details/CharleyPiloy-BrotherCanYouSpareADime
"Happy Days are Here Again" 3:11	Depression era song used a campaign song for FDR's 1932 presidential campaign.	Ager & Yellen [Composer]. Happy days are here again [Recorded by A. Hanshaw]. [MP3]. Retrieved from Internet Archive: http://www.archive.org/details/HappyDaysAreHereAgain
"Loveless CCC" 1:24	Song written by a CCC boy who regretted joining the CCC because he feels the work is hard and the living conditions are poor.	CCC Camper (n.d.). Loveless CCC [Recorded August 7, 1940 by T. Rhoades]. On Voices from the Dust Bowl: The Charles L. Todd and Robert Sonkin Migrant Worker Collection, 1940-1941. Library of Congress American Folklife Center. Retrieved from http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/afctshhtml/tshome.html (Digital ID: AFCTS 4130b1).
"Government Camp Song" 2:19	Song written and recorded by 3 young girls living in a government camp. The song describes the camp.	Campbell, M., Campbell, B., & Treat, M. (1941, August, 9). On Voices from the Dust Bowl: The Charles L. Todd and Robert Sonkin Migrant Worker Collection, 1940-1941. Library of Congress American Folklife Center. Retrieved from http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/afctshhtml/tshome.html (Digital ID: AFCTS 5101a1).