

SHOT #	GRAPHIC	TEXT	AUDIO
1		Unemployment in the Great Depression  Kim Sciandra	Music: Moving Images
2		Unemployment peaked at 25% in 1933 and stayed above 15% for most of the 1930's.	Music: Tearful Goodbyes
3		Without an income many people could no longer afford a home. People resorted to living in shacks and tents.	Music: cont.
4			Music: Interview with Roy Turner - Cut 1 Shacks

SHOT #	GRAPHIC	TEXT	AUDIO
5			Music: Everlasting Sadness
6			Music: Everlasting Sadness (cont.)
7			Music: Everlasting Sadness (cont.)
8		Shack communities began to appear all over the country. Because people blamed President Hoover for the Depression they mockingly called these communities "Hoovervilles".	Music: Everlasting Sadness (cont.)

SHOT #	GRAPHIC	TEXT	AUDIO
9			Music: Everlasting Sadness (cont.)
10			Music: Everlasting Sadness (cont.)
11			Music: Everlasting Sadness (cont.)
12		No longer able to afford food people had to rely on charities for food, try to grow their own food, or rummage through garbage.	Music: Everlasting Sadness (cont.)

SHOT #	GRAPHIC	TEXT	AUDIO
13	 NOTICE MEAL HOURS BREAKFAST 7:30-8:30 A.M. SUPPER 4:30-5:30 P.M. SUNDAYS &amp; HOLIDAYS at 12:00 &amp; 6:00 P.M. ♦ COME EARLY ♦ LUNCHES 4-5 CENTS AND SUPPER 10 CENTS &amp; 10 CENTS DINNER 10 CENTS &amp; 10 CENTS OFFICE 10-12 P.M. OFFICE 10-12 P.M. &amp; 4-6 P.M. SUN BY MAIL		Music: Everlasting Sadness (cont.)
14			Music: Interview with Roy Turner - Cut 2 Food
15			Music: Interview with Roy Turner - Cut 2 Food (cont.)

SHOT #	GRAPHIC	TEXT	AUDIO
16			Music: Interview with Roy Turner - Cut 2 Food (cont.)
17			Music: Tearful Goodbyes

SHOT #	GRAPHIC	TEXT	AUDIO
18			Music: Tearful Goodbyes (cont.)
19		The country was ready for a change. In 1932 FDR was elected. In his first 100 days of office he enacted several of his “New Deal” programs. These programs provided job training, employment, and relief checks.	Music: Tearful Goodbyes (cont.)

20			Music: Happy Days Are Here Again
20		Farm Security Administration (FSA)  Built camps that provided homeless people with safe and sanitary living conditions.	Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)
21			Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)
22			Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)
		The Works Progress Administration	Music: Happy Days Are Here

23		(WPA) provided vocational training for men and women.	Again (cont.)
24			Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)
25			Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)
26		Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) enlisted young single men.  They lived in camps and worked on conservation projects such as reforestation and improving federal and state parks.	Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)

27				Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)
28				Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)
29			Unemployment and Social Security benefits provided millions of people with "relief checks." These programs still exist today.	Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)

30			Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)
31		Although these programs helped millions of people, the unemployment rate did not fall below 15% until World War II, when wartime production needs provided employment opportunities.	Music: Happy Days Are Here Again (cont.)